

Network connectivity

Both multifunction machines are network ready, 'out of the box' so it's as simple as plugging in a cable to connect to your wired network. Your multifunction printer is now even more cost effective as it can support a work group of people who can share all it's printing, copying, scanning and faxing capabilities reducing the need for multiple machines.

Media card centre

Take advantage of the fantastic media card centre available on these new generation multifunction printers which allow you to print excellent quality digital images directly from your media cards. Both machines are also PictBridge compatible, allowing you to print directly from your camera. With a wide 3.3" LCD and built in photo enhance software on the MFC-5890CN you can also view and edit your photographs, including red eye reduction, before printing.

Energy efficient

Brother's new multifunction inkjet printers have the low power consumption, minimum noise emission, use of non-hazardous materials and a recycling-friendly design, that are all required to comply with ENERGY STAR and the renowned Blue Angel environmental standard.

Consumables designed to cut costs

Brother's Innobella original consumables utilise state-of-the-art technology to produce top quality prints time and time again whilst keeping your cost per page to a minimum. Long-lasting colours are vivid and true thanks to fade resistant inks and specially coated paper.

They're compact, sleek and hard-working.

Why pay more? Reduce your costs by combining all your office machines into one. Choose Brother's fast print, copy, scan and fax solution in one compact, space-saving unit, with easy-to-use features that will help achieve top quality results for your business.

The new multifunction colour inkjet printers have been designed for both business and home office users who are looking for quality, good value and want to achieve more with their office equipment. And for maximum impact A3 printing step up to the MFC-5890CN.

Quality and versatility

High speed, high quality colour print, copy, scan and fax capabilities when you need them. For added versatility you can also print borderless photos directly from your camera or media cards. Need up to A3 borderless printing? Choose the MFC-5890CN.

Save time and money

These multifunction machines offer high speed printing, copying, scanning and faxing. This means you are using just one machine for all your office tasks instead of four. And with separate ink cartridges your savings are even greater as you only need to replace the colour that has run out.

Ease of use

You can print from and scan directly to a USB memory stick (including scan directly to PDF), quickly copy multi-page documents with the Automatic Document Feeder and using the handy speed dials send faxes to your most popular contacts - all at the touch of a button. The MFC-5890CN also boasts a wide, full colour 3.3" LCD screen, so all its features are easily accessible - you can preview incoming faxes before you print them - putting a stop to wasting paper and inks on unwanted faxes.

Professional print quality

An ink droplet size of just 1.5 Picolitres (pl) and an incredible 6,000dpi resolution, add fast print speeds of up to 35 pages per minute, so you'll achieve professional results with real time saving benefits.

Flexible colour copying

Exceptional colour copies are available at the touch of a button. You can enlarge and reduce your documents, copy a multi-paged document on to one sheet, and with the automatic document feeder you can copy and collate up to 50 sheets.

Hi-resolution colour scanning

When you need documents or images scanned, you'll get professional results from these easy to use machines:

- Scan directly to your USB stick (including PDF)
- Scan documents straight to file on your computer
- Scan documents straight to email as an attachment
- Scan an image directly to your photo application so it's ready for editing or printing
- Scan to OCR (optical character recognition), giving you the ability to edit a pre-printed document
- Scan to FTP (MFC-5890CN only)

Full colour fax

Whether faxing is a regular task or an occasional need, you have the capabilities right at your fingertips - and in full colour! With an automatic redial, 100 speed dial numbers and up to 400 pages transmit/receive memory, it'll help you save time and Do More in the office, every single day.
